Journeys through the Tapestry: Poems of Nature and Man Joseph L Bensinger

Revisit the joy of reflection and contemplation in Joseph L. Bensinger's captivating new book of poetry, Journeys through the Tapestry. Fans of traditional verse will delight in this exquisite collection that captures all of the beauty, serenity, and tranquility of the world around us. Full of vivid verse and dreamy imagery, Bensinger takes readers on a unique journey through the farthest reaches of nature—and the soul. Rousing a deeper and more profound appreciation of nature within his audiences, Bensinger provides them with a brand new view of the mystery and magic that pervades life on Earth. The poems within Journeys through the Tapestry, such as "Earth's Womb" and "Little Bridges," invite readers to peel away the layers of our very existence and embrace the tenuous threads that connect us all to each other and our surroundings. By capturing the "big picture" instead of becoming stuck on one particular layer, the vastness of the universe is suddenly contained even within the tiniest tree.
