Are you experiencing trouble in your marriage? Are you losing hope and have a strong desire to give up? Or, do you feel like God is not hearing your cry for assistance? If any of the above are your thoughts and feelings, then this book is for you. My prayer is that this book gives hope to the wife or husband that may be feeling: frustration, discouragement and helplessness, due to the pressures that comes with the words “I Do”. I pray that my journey will encourage you to keep holding on, to believe that all is not lost when you give your situation to God to handle. That out of every tear, trial, victory and opportunity that comes with life, God will get the glory and honor that He so deserves for giving us another day to get it right; to learn from His character and to love and cherish the spouse that is spiritually connected to us in the eyes of God.
