Mafia Aphrodite: A Novel of Power and Sex O'Neil De Noux

Take a walk on the wild side along the beaches of the Mississippi Gulf Coast before Katrina with Lucy Incanto, daughter of a Mafia boss who is about to inherit millions, along with the freedom she's never had. Lucy Incanto is hot. At twenty-three she is about to inherit a fortune – money, property and the family business – the Incanto Family – La Cosa Nostra, Mafia. The lone offspring of Boss ‘Big Luke’ Incanto, who is dying in a hospital bed, the life of this pampered, porcelain-doll Mafia Princess is about to change. Lucy is slim, sleek, gorgeous. Yet men avoid her once they discover Big Luke is her Daddy. She seethes with repressed energy, repressed sexuality. Lucy Incanto is a classic Italian beauty with luxurious, long, dark brown hair, Mediterranean-brown eyes and fair, almost pale-white skin, full lips, probably her best feature, perfectly sculptured, her top lip rising to a slight point in the center. Everyone is about to discover this beauty is more intelligent than any of the men running the family and she will finally free herself to explore her sexual fantasies in the real world as a Mafia Aphrodite. Power. And sex. And a woman sharp enough to handle both. Lucy Incanto is hot.
