Double Take W Karno

Miles Graham, a London property dealer is arrested on charges of serious fraud. In jail he meets a self-confessed bank robber. Together they plot how to escape from prison and how to find a better way of robbing the same bank. The 'villains' have to run, sail, duck and dive to out-wit their pursuers, from the English Channel to the wilds of Scotland, not knowing just how close they are behind them, or in front... The lawyers, bank and police know they're guilty. What remains to be seen is, can they catch them? This revealing thriller opens a can of worms on the world of finance, where greed and power continue to live side by side. At least until now.
