Le constat est sans appel : 90 à 95% des particuliers qui investissent en bourse perdent de l'argent! Au delà parfois de problèmes de connaissance des marchés financiers, les deux raisons principales qui expliquent un tel taux d'échec sont un problème de gestion des émotions et un problème de money management. Sachant qu'avec un bon money management, on règle une bonne partie des problèmes liés à la gestion des émotions, car les risques sont mieux maîtrisés, le money management apparaît donc comme la pierre angulaire indispensable à tout investisseur ou trader. A la lecture de ce livre, vous découvrirez toutes les facettes du money management, en commençant par l'approche traditionnelle pour aller vers une approche alternative et innovante. Vous apprendrez comment mettre en place votre propre money management de façon pratique, quelle que soit votre façon d'intervenir sur les marchés financiers, pour enfin faire partie des 5 à 10% des investisseurs qui gagnent!
