A Hero Born Joseph Salgado

When the President of the United States found himself in the middle of a combat zone face to face with our nation's enemy, it would take acts of heroism and fearlessness to save him – if they could even be saved. President Smith has everything going for him after making a deal with a very powerful and secretive man to secure his presidential win. In fact, things have worked out so well that the president believed he was untouchable. All of that would change when the president's fatal decision placed him closer to our nations enemy then he could have ever imagined. In a desperate attempt to find the President of the United States, many must risk their lives in order to save him while America was overcome with fear – before it was too late and our enemy executed the president on a world stage.
