Dreams mean business when you're friends with The Petite Entrepreneurs!

Encouraging creativity, engaging the entrepreneurial spirit and displaying the importance of perseverance and confidence, The Petite Entrepreneurs will quickly become your friends too.

In book one of this innovative and spirited series, Elle transforms one of her favorite hobbies, making pretty center pieces, into a little business. With the help of her family and support of friends, she starts her first business, 'Elle's Elegant Tables'. She organizes her idea and creates a plan but more important, Elle believes in herself. Even as a few neighbors say 'no thank you' to her flyers, Elle shakes off disappointment, harnesses perseverance and ultimately gets her first customer!

You and your kids will be cheering Elle on as she builds her little business and read where dreams may take her.

Author, Andrea B. Newman, creates an innovative and fun way for children to be introduced to the basic aspects of business. Drawing inspiration from family, friends and her own entrepreneurial spirit, The Petite Entrepreneurs encourages creativity, displays perseverance and the importance of confidence. The series illustrates various ways businesses can start. The books also show children there is no limitation to dreams coming true through hard work. The Petite Entrepreneurs are proudly printed in the United States.
