Most people respond better to visual images than words alone, and yet most devotionals are just words. This artistic devotional provides a unique and novel way of encouraging readers by combining photographic images with Scripture and personal inspirational messages to ignite the spirit deposited within us. In These Greatest Gifts, the first book in the A Thousand Words of Inspiration book series, Catherine B. Elias focuses on six of God's most familiar gifts (e.g., faith, hope, love, trust, peace, and grace) and the transformational power these gifts can have in our daily walk and specific areas of need. Each book is kept small so that it can be used as a coffee-table book or part of a collection.
