How to live in Vietnam for under $300 a month: working 10 hours a month Alfredo de la Casa

Simple! This book is about how you can live in Vietnam, having a great life for just $300 a month, plus how to easily get that amount of money by working around 10-12 hours a month, are you tempted? Ok, let's make a few things clear: - This is not a miracle book, or in other words, you do not need to make short of a miracle to achieve such living! This is easily achievable by virtually anyone, as long as your English is good enough. - The costs listed here are real at the time of writing (May 2013) and they are likely to stay similar for a while. - This book does not require you to live under a bridge or do something illegal to achieve the living standards, is just normal living, normal costs, you just need to drink beer in Vietnamese restaurants (50 cents or less for a cold one) rather than in ex-pat bars ($3-$7). - Numbers, prices, and places are real! I am a fully qualified Chartered Management Accountant, so I know about numbers! - You will need to make some changes to your diet, however that does not mean that you will starve or that your diet will be limited to rice. Vietnamese food is delicious (and I have even gained 7 kilos here), what it means is that you may need to say goodbye to olives or cherries (which are imported products and expensive) and welcome fresh fish, oysters, prawns, mangoes, coconuts,... which are grown locally and terribly cheap. In this book I will tell you what is cool and nice, like semi-deserted beaches, and what is not so good or terrible, like traffic, so that you have a realistic picture of life here before you decide whether to move here or not. I am also attaching two little presents: - Cultural and business guide to Vietnam - Guide to Ho Chi Minh City and other major cities and tourist destinations. I am sure you will enjoy reading, and may be I will be drinking a beer next to you if you move to Vietnam!
