Cambridgeshire (Pimlico County History Guides) Ross Clark

This is one of the "Pimlico Guides," a series which explores the history of various counties in the UK. The series embraces each county's topography, folklore, archaeology, and architecture, and each edition is written by a writer with a strong attachment to that particular county, providing personal impressions alongside often surprising information. In addition, each edition includes a specially written introduction by Christopher Hibbert, a map, and a section of illustrations.
