Jackson's Revenge Kevin Hogge

Jackson's Revenge is an action/adventure western based on the activities surrounding the Jackson Ranch near the fictional town of Stockley, Arizona. Beginning with the unexplained arrest of rancher, Billy Parker. It becomes obvious the Town Marshal has a grudge against the family, but no one knows why. The story unfolds as attorney, Miles Carr, investigates the source which eventually leads back to the Civil War. Going back to 1861, James Randolph Jackson joins the war effort for his beloved Virginia and through a twist of fate becomes the beneficiary of a six thousand acre tract in Arizona Territory. Following his adventure and the family's move west, James becomes a pioneer in Arizona, ranching, until he suddenly dies in 1874. The cause or reason for his untimely death is not known until his grandson has problems with the Town Marshal in 1885. Follow their adventures and twists of fate as the story unfolds and the Parker family fulfill the dreams of their Patriarch, James Randolph Jackson.
