The Golden Thread: A Haven For Broken Souls Book Four (De Clare Chronicles) (Volume 4) N. L. Fowler

1215 England King John's rule has developed into skirmishes of will and might with the Barons. The King's hired mercenaries are roaming with a free hand, bringing destruction and hardship throughout England.

Tristan and Alinor de Clare act in support of their families and friends as they actively seek containment of the King. Sunnid's population is growing, building a better life for those in need. Together they discover the life to be gained as the haven of Sunnid is recognized. The long struggle is nearly over, and a bright sunrise promises for the future.
