Animals A-Z: Picture Eye Book (Eye Book Series) (Volume 1) Monica V Scott

Through this colorful picture book learn unique details about weird, crazy, and scary animal eyes from A through Z. Spiders, Geckos, Butterflies, and Vipers all have something special about their eyes that you can learn. Big wild african animals like rhinos as well as the little insects like ladybugs have eyes designed for their environment. Learn a spectacular detail about the eyesight of these wonderful animals in the animal kingdom through colorful watercolor pictures. This series uses simple language with bold graphics to educate children and adults about one of the most complex organs. The Animals A-Z Eye Book makes a great kids bedtime story because it is an educational short read. Your child will be entertained by the vibrant painted illustrations of the black and white zebra and the hairy tarantula. No mystery, fantasy, wizardry, or magic needed! Your child will be amazed and delighted to know some of the fantastic characteristics of natural wild life. Captivating paintings along with bold letters of the alphabet on each page can be used by teachers and parents to instruct and engage youth in pre-school and kindergarten. Still the book has wide appeal, captivating enough for teenagers as well. This is an introductory book in a series of easy learning academic books about the eye written by ABO Master Optician Monica Scott.
