I have written this book so people can understand that no matter what happens in life, if we pray, trust, and have faith in God, we can face any trial or test we are handed and come out a better and stronger person. The things that have happened in my life have made me a more considerate, caring person, and through all of these things, I can now help others. God has given me an unconditional love for people. I can relate to what they are going through. I can offer them help and hope through our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. - H. Delores Kroeger, 2012
