The Crucifixion of President Barack Hussein Obama Dr. Rufus O. Jimerson

The purpose of this book is to unravel the political, ethnocentric, xenophobic, and religious motives to deny the first African-American president the full authority, respect, recognition and credit for his accomplishments on behalf of the American people. Mischaracterization and categorical lies have been used to demonize his presidency. So-called fundamentalist Christians are attempting to strip him of his legacy. They and their moneyed allies are attempting to purge his presidency in an unprecedented manner. Obama's presidency is being challenged on every minute legal, extralegal, and philosophic matter. The race card driven by envy, greed, arrogance, and the politics to garner the support of bigoted and moneyed interest is examined as the ulterior motive or pretense behind this quest to purge Obama's authority, seek his impeachment and deny him a lasting legacy of accomplishments. This book looks at President Obama's Christian policies from his speeches and the intent of his actions to results against historic Republican obstruction and Democrat's acquiescence. In doing so, it examines the karmatic theories regarding his and other great leaders. The book looks at similarities between President Obama and some of these leaders. These leaders like Obama are deemed to be global peacemakers and saviors of mankind. These Obama-like figures include Joseph, Joshua, Buddha, Horus, Krishna, Akhenaten and Jesus Christ. Collectively, they are responsible for the foundation of modern monotheistic religions, as well as the "hope and change" that benefits mankind. On the other hand, when twisted and misused by intolerant Christian fundamentalist and Islamic extremist faith became a detriment to progress and humanity. The book looks at the "Negrophobia" confronting Obama by those who have twisted and detached Christianity from its roots. They along with the enablers of the Right have falsely Europeanized religion founded by Africans in Africa and its Northeastern subcontinent, renamed the Middle East. Close to the time of the death of Christ and during the finding of Christianity the Universal Church of Christ throughout Europe and into Russia, icons and images of Christianity's African founders that include Jesus Christ, disciples and authors of the Bible are displayed in their oldest churches. This historic evidence, well ahead of African slavery and the destruction of its civilizations, contradicts the white supremacy that drives the attacks on President Obama and all people of African descent. This evidence is identified and placed into the narrative of Western hegemony and hubris. In addition, the collateral damage on "people of color" is assessed, including the self-imposed hatred and dehumanization. Last but not least, the so-called moral majority's reintroduction of the worst aspects of institutional genocide and Jim Crow into public policy is reviewed. The author firmly believes that acknowledgement of these "hard truths" will provide the motive to seek self-determination and justice.
