The Histories of Herodotus of Halicarnassus, in Two Volumes

Complete in two hardcover volumes, paginated continuously. xxviii, 615 pp. A complete collection of the Histories by one of the most well-known Greek historians, with marginal notes by the translator and illustrations by Edward Bawden. Maps on endpapers, fold-out map of Central Greece illustrating the invasion by Xerxes. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Herodotus of Halicarnassus was a Greek historian who lived in the 5th century BC (c. 484 BC?c. 425 BC) and is regarded as the 'Father of History' in Western culture. He was the first historian known to collect his materials systematically, test their accuracy to a certain extent and arrange them in a well-constructed and vivid narrative. He is almost exclusively known for writing The Histories, a record of his 'inquiries' into the origins of the Greco-Persian Wars which occurred in 490 and 480-479 BC ? especially since he includes a narrative account of that period, which would otherwise be poorly documented; and many long digressions concerning the various places and peoples he encountered during wide-ranging travels around the lands of the Mediterranean and Black Sea. Although some of his stories are not completely accurate, he claims that he is reporting only what has been told to him. Keywords: HISTORY WORLD LITERATURE ANCIENT ROMAN HISTORIAN
