Countdown to Departure: You cannot stay, so where will you go? Marcus S Williams

In the last days, a unique generation of believers in Christ will not experience death because in an instant they will suddenly vanish in the Rapture. Jesus urged His followers to not sleep but watch for His appearing. However, does He really expect their watch to be literal? In Countdown to Departure, you will discover the answer as you gain a fresh perspective of the catastrophic events that Jesus foretold would precede His return. Marcus Williams analyzes intriguing clues in the Seven Feasts of the Lord, the Jewish Jubilee, and Daniel's Seventy Weeks prophecy that strongly suggest Jesus will fulfill major prophecies in 2022 and 2029.

The Bible clearly shows Jesus fulfilled four of the seven Jewish feast days at the time God appointed in Leviticus 23. The Feast of Trumpets is the next feast Jesus will complete. Today, it is commonly known as Rosh Hashanah or the first day of a Jewish new year. Marcus Williams presents biblical evidence that indicates the rare Hebrew calendar characteristics in the year after the Holy Ghost fell is the key to the year that Jesus fulfills the Feast of Trumpets. He provides twenty-nine tables and figures to illustrate the biblical treasures that God sealed until the time of our generation.

In addition, Williams provides four information rich appendices for those who wish to examine the details that support his conclusions. Appendix A is a summary of the Julian and Gregorian calendars to assist readers in their study of ancient dates. Appendix B introduces the Hebrew calendar basics that are necessary to understand Jewish dates in the Bible. Appendix C examines Scripture to show Jesus died on Thursday. Finally, Appendix D analyzes Scripture and several historical events to show Jesus died on April 4, AD 30.

Countdown to Departure concludes with humanity's final funeral on Judgment Day. It places you in the Divine courtroom to see the Great White Throne court proceedings from both a believer's and unbeliever's perspective. It explains why Judgment Day will be the last funeral either one will attend and how a single decision that you make will determine your place in God's courtroom. The book gives a clear and comprehensive presentation of the gospel so that you can stand with the redeemed before Jesus' throne of mercy and not with the condemned before His judgment throne.
