We know the wonderful story of the baby born in Bethlehem long ago. Why don't we know the life story of Satan? For the first time, the Devil gets his due. His birth, his trials, and his triumphs are laid out here in dazzling color and frightening clarity. Set partially against the backdrop of the story of Jesus, the reader is taken on an epic journey through heaven, hell, earth, and the spaces in between. The cartoonish red horns and tail are laid aside, and we see a clear portrait of a charismatic person whom we admire. One whom we have already invited into our homes...
