Pain never truly goes away, until you find something deeper and meaningful that cures the heart and fills it with love. That is what eighteen-year-old Aurora desperately wants to believe. That somehow her music can save her, or even touch the unreachable heart of the guy she has liked for years. Rora yearns for his attention and wants to experience this so-called love that could possibly end her long suffering and inspire her to chase after her dreams. In deeply understanding the intentions of others, will Aurora give up on ever finding true happiness, or will an intriguing soul teach her about the greatest song ever written? This is a young adult, coming of age, contemporary novel about loss, growth, and the beauty of love through music.
