My Husband the Cheap Bastard David Kuoch, Amy Gayheart

What started as a question of how many men out there are stingy and thrift-minded became a project, a blog, and finally the book. Then stories poured in from across the country, namely from women who had cheap-bastard husbands of their own. New lessons were learned in penny-pinching: Why pay retail? Buy in bulk! Clip coupons! Save for a rainy day. Husbands taking it too far: bartering in restaurants, recycling popcorn at movie theaters, and committing mail fraud in order to save a penny. Families' lives were being turned upside down by these penny-pinching men. Sound familiar? Laugh out loud with this compendium of short stories that just might save you a penny or two.
