Sidney Sonnino was a leading figure in Italian politics since the final years of the 19th century: he has been Minister of Finance, Minister of Foreign Affairs and twice President of Italian Council. The book contains his speeches held in the Chamber of Deputies during the Great War and the following peace negotiations. The texts, introduced by historians Pieri Luigi Ballini and Luciano Monzali, offer a clear overview of Sonnino's views on foreign policy and an account of his efforts in the international arena.
