Over the last 15 years AZC's architectural work has developed through a diverse range of experiences. This book, Time for Play, presents exhibition pavilions, temporary installations, and ideas competitions – a mix of built and un-built projects.

“...Today's situation promotes innovation, supports creativity and enriches projects, calling on our intelligence. We are forced to take a new look at practices and uses, to consider different ways of doing things, to think about the humanity of a place; and all this when we still find it so hard to understand community needs, and even more so to keep up with changing society.”

And this is the position taken by AZC architects. Faced with a changing world, they propose solutions that are novel in their shape, use, cost and temporality.

Ana Vela:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Time for Play: Why Architecture should take Happiness Seriously can make you experience more interested to read.
