A Dangerous Journey Emily Rose Strand

A nineteen year old girl named Taylor from California went to a camp in Montana the summer of 2030. However, Taylor did not like the camp at all. She hated everyone there, especially her roommates in the cabin. Later on she realizes her roommates were fun and that she was wrong about them. They became really good friends, but the camp was soon over. One lived in New York and the other in Florida. Taylor did what ever she could to make sure that she would see them before all of them headed off to college. Along the journey to find her friends, she has to conquer some of her fears. The whole time of the journey, one of Taylor's friends she graduated with was Belle was following Taylor. Belle was overprotected of Taylor and when she finds out about Taylor going to see other people, she wanted revenge on them. To do that, Belle will need to follow Taylor on her journey. What will Belle do to Taylor's friends, possibly Taylor also?
