Pineywoods Summer Haiku: Poems and Photographs Judith Lauter

Pineywoods Summer Haiku, by poet and neuroscientist Judith Lauter, provides a photographic and poetic experience of a midsummer's day deep in the pine forests of East Texas, in and around the college town of Nacogdoches. The area is well-known to naturalists as a fascinating intersection of five major bioecological regions - prairies, deserts, tropics, swamps, and forests - and thus unique for its amazing diversity of plants and animals. In this book of color photos paired with insightful, graceful haiku poems, the reader can explore the color, life, and energy of summer "behind the pine curtain" in the gardens, forests, and lakes of the East-Texas pineywoods.
