Rescue the girl, go back home, and all is well. Right? That's how it's supposed to go... But not this time.

After battling for their lives against Whitefang, Jess and Jake return to Scarfell Mountain and the Bear Oaks Clan needing some well-deserved rest. But what they find is anything but peaceful.

The mountainside echoes with the sound of war and the couple must each fight to protect the ones they love without tearing themselves or each other apart. But after a few missteps, shocking lies, and hidden secrets are revealed which puts a strain upon their budding relationship.

This could prove the biggest challenge yet for the newly mated couple.

Will they be able to move past what happened and forgive each other? Or is this the end for the men and woman, bear and human alike, of Scarfell Mountain as we know it?

Author note: This is a short paranormal romance story and the concluding part of Bearllionaire Stepbrother. Within you'll find sass and scorching hot scenes. If any of these don't take your fancy then you may want to skip this book.
