At the tender age of eleven, JENNIFER STEVENS knew first hand. From paper dolls to sexual horror, and unable to break her silence for reasons clearly made, her cries for help were mysteriously heard as she stumbled onto a way to save herself from the bona fide boogie man. While struggling with a rather dysfunctional family and seemingly uncaring father, who's only aim in life was to bed as many women no matter the consequence, she had finally found solace. Through it all, Jenny's strong will to live had given her the ability to intergrate a whole new world which possessed all the needed love and protection she so desperately craved. Or could have been there all along, just waiting for her, and the many, many others destined to follow her path. How else could it be explained what she wrote in her diary prior to the last attack or the fact that FRAN, the one to come to her rescue, really did exist. What provided PEPPER, the mischievous family pet, who has always been painted as a useless good for nothing mutt, the motive to bring on judgment day? Did this little hero have a stake in it too? Through the tragedy, triumph and karma, it seemed that life went on nevertheless, even when living it had stopped.....somewhere.
