Sketches of a bluNote Aquanza Cadogan

Meet the Thompson family: a simple, yet complex, family catapulted into uncharted terrain called "fame." Gray Thompson a jazz musician whose Harlem origin is both acclaimed and criticized as his fame fades with time. Join Gray as he navigates through fatherhood and a struggling music career that provides some uncanny life lessons. Blu Thompson, the soccer phenom who puts Harlem on a global scale with his fancy footwork and urban swagger. He quickly learns that fame comes with tremendous responsibility and an even higher cost that may be too high to repay. Sketch Thompson gave her all to Harlem. Her passion for women's rights and to protect the legacy created by her mother will cause her to do the unimaginable to preserve her movement. Harlem had a certain character, a certain code of ethics, but more importantly it had a distinct sound. A sound defined by Gray, a code of ethics diverse like Blu, and an undeniable character built and maintained by Sketch Thompson.
